

Luis F Gil

Business Development Director Energy Latin America at Black & Veatch

Summary

Luis F. Gil is the Business Development Director for the Power Generation Services in Latin America, and also manages various consulting services projects in the region. Mr. Gil has more than 36 years of power plant experience with more than 20 years in the international area. Mr. Gil early design experience in the Electrical / Control Engineering Group and his background as a Mechanical Engineer provide an extensive technical base for his performance as a Project Director / Manager. Mr. Gil technical knowledge, language capabilities and understanding of business in Latin America, allows him to effectively manage projects in the Latin American region. In his current position Mr. Gil leads the business development activities for Black & Veatch's global energy business in Latin America, as well as takes on the role of Project Manager in some projects.

Experience

Business Development Director Energy Latin America at Black & Veatch

May 2003 - Present (12 years 3 months)

Project Manager at Entergy

1998 - 2002 (4 years)

Education

University of Missouri-Columbia

BSME/MSIE, Engineering, 1975 - 1979

Luis F Gil

Business Development Director Energy Latin America at Black & Veatch

Contact Luis F on LinkedIn