

Dan Krupp

President at Universal Air Filter Company

Experience

President at Universal Air Filter Company

February 2015 - Present (6 months)

Director - Sales & Engineering at Universal Air Filter Company

March 1991 - January 2015 (23 years 11 months)

Responsible for managing relationships with key business partners and customers while setting the overall strategy of the business. Direct and manage all sales, marketing, design engineering and product development activities. Lead engineering and sales teams focused on achieving revenue and profit goals. Areas of expertise and responsibility include: strategic planning, international technical sales & marketing, marketing and sales management, design engineering, research and development and product management

Engineering Customer Support Specialist at Boeing

August 1984 - March 1991 (6 years 8 months)

Skills & Expertise

Product Development

Engineering

Product Management

Management

CAD

Strategy

Education

Saint Louis University

MBA, Business Management, 1985 - 1987

University of Missouri-Columbia

BSIE, Engineering, 1980 - 1984

Activities and Societies: Phi Kappa Theta - Membership Chairman 1983-84 Society of Manufacturing Engineers Institute of Industrial Engineers

De Smet Jesuit High School

Interests

strategic planning, communications network infrastructure, thermal management, 3D CAD, photography, soccer, golf

Dan Krupp

President at Universal Air Filter Company

Contact Dan on LinkedIn