2 person has recommended Christy

"Christy is an extremely talented and motivated person. At BMH Robotics, she was regularly given new and challenging projects and performed extremely well through the project lifecycle. She was able to produce high level material handling system concepts by utilizing a think "out of the box" mentality, listening to the customer, and translating their needs effectively."

— Steven Hogg, worked directly with Christy at BMH Robotics

"Christy and I worked together at Scholastic and later at BMH Robotics. She has an incredible work ethic and is committed to customer satisfaction. She leads by example and possesses excellent communication skills. Her strong background in process improvement, project management, and team building are keys to her success."

— Dave Gasparovic, managed Christy at BMH Robotics
